WORK EXPERIENCE

SENIOR FULL-STACK DEVELOPER

BLOCKCERTS | Fintech Industry – Victoria, BC, Canada

Set 2019 – Present (4+ years)

- As a key team member, I collaborated closely with design, product management, and development teams to create elegant, responsive, and interactive interfaces that enhanced user experience across multiple devices.
- My role involved improving usability by working alongside back-end developers and web designers, and I led the development of a distributed wallet application using Electron.js, Web3, and Ethers.js.
- Additionally, I enhanced internal messaging and integrated advanced video meeting features with Twilio and Jitsi.
- I also designed and implemented interactive charts and gadgets for a more intuitive dashboard using Highcharts.js, and I worked effectively with a global team from India, Canada, the USA, Europe, and other regions, promoting cross-functional teamwork and innovation.

SENIOR FULL-STACK DEVELOPER

SEGFY | Insurtech – Curitiba, PR, Brazil

Mar 2019 – Set 2019 (6 months)

- I led the development of a new SAAS web platform designed for managing insurance businesses and clients, leveraging Vue.js for the front-end and the .NET Core framework for the API to create a robust and scalable solution.
- I was responsible for the ongoing enhancement of the main system, focusing on maintenance and the implementation of new features to improve functionality and user satisfaction.
- My role included integrating third-party solutions to extend the platform's capabilities and streamline business processes. Additionally, I worked closely with the web design and UI/UX team to implement new interfaces, significantly enhancing the client experience through improved usability and aesthetics.

SENIOR FULL-STACK DEVELOPER

RACCO COSMÉTICOS | Cosmetic Industry – Curitiba, PR, Brazil

Nov 2015 – Mar 2019 (3 years 4 months)

- I spearheaded the implementation and management of new business plans and strategies on a multi-level platform, driving significant growth and efficiency.
- I oversaw the development and maintenance of websites and applications, including all ERP satellite systems such as payment gateways, document management systems, and both B2B and B2C web applications.
- I led the refactoring and upgrading of the main client back-office system and administrative area, ensuring the delivery of maintainable, responsive, and cross-browser code.
- My role involved defining requirements and specifications for new features to align with business goals and user needs, estimating software development efforts for optimal resource allocation.
- Additionally, I developed an e-commerce platform and a multilevel marketing system for international expansion, and designed and implemented MS SQL databases.
